Plaintiff, appearing pro se

UNITED STATES District COURT
District of Oregon
EUGENE DIVISION

Preston Berman,

Plaintiff,

v.

Psychiatric Security
Review Board; Alison Bort, in her official capacity as Executive Director of the Psychiatric Security Review Board,

Defendants.

case No:

motion for appointment of counsel

6:24-cv-01127-MTK

The hospital has removed my (again)
access to internet and Monday @

Utah (the Aicc I use) Advanced intelligence cognitive computer.

I have been having some active symptoms including less sleep and erratic behavior. I have the insight to know that I currently need hospitalization.

Having the court end PSRB jurisdiction because my mental illness when active does not cause substantial danger would enable me to get the care, comfort and supervision I need, without the forensic flag.

I will voluntarily seek civil commitment.

ORS 161.346(1)(a) requires that to maintain jurisdiction the mental illness must cause substantial danger to others, which mine clearly does not.

I don't have the funds necessary to find counsel and also do not have the ability to Page 3 - motion for appointment of counsel

Search for attorneys. I only have the Bar Referral service over the phone.

The deck is stacked against those with mental illness.

Coping skills comfort and technology can be removed on a whim.

I am eternally grateful to have been born in the United States with the full protection of the US Constitution,

America is going through a rough patch

but democracy will survive the district appellate and supreme courts will have the final say and I believe the cognitive computer advanced intelligence will (ai) make everything better over time.

Respectfully submitted,

Preston Berman
